DEAR ENTREPRENEUR,

If there is one thing I have learned in the Food Industry, it's that the best working relationships are between those who have common goals. This is why I believe we would make a great team.

- You have a passion to make delicious food, I'm passionate about cooking it
- You enjoy a quick turnaround, I thrive on working fast
- You like to think outside of the box, I'm innovation at work

You and I, as a team, make perfect business sense. But I'm a Panini Press of little words and lots of action so feel free to visit my enclosed resume.

Let's "press on" together towards success.

Regards,

Gelato Panini Press
